

Siftweed

The following is the information concerning this organic plant:

Appearance

12" to 14" clumps of Siftweed stem like wild grass up out of tightly woven roots. When pulled, the roots will also come up. There are tiny oval-shaped pours covering each round blade of Siftweed.

% chance to locate per 24 hours: 5%

of checks per 24 hours: 1

Classification: Plant.

Color: Light-brown.

Location: Surface.

Maturity: 18 days.

Regional habitation: Grasslands.

Smell: Dried grass.

Uses found: 1-D4+1. Once used, Siftweed cannot purify again.

Value per use: 8 electrum.

Taste: Dried grass.

Texture: Slightly course.

Explanation

Siftweed is only found within the Grassland Region. Survivalists use this plant to ensure purity in the water they drink.

Area of influence: Water this is poured through Siftweed.

Damage: Not applicable.

Duration of effects: Permanent.

Effect time: Instantly (as soon as water empties through Siftweed).

Effects: Water poured through Siftweed will absorb the impurities within the water as it can slowly flows through the thick layer of plant fibers. Purifies 1 gallon of water per use.

Healing: Not applicable.

Immunities: None. Poison cannot be sifted from water by Siftweed.

Maximum adjustments:

Overdose symptoms: Not applicable.

Range of influence: Water this is poured through Siftweed.

Resting time: Not applicable.

Side effects: Not applicable.

Used for: Water purification.

Preparation

Form a thick layer of Siftweed over an empty container. Pour tainted water through the Siftweed once. Siftweed thickness should be approximately 6" thick and packed tightly together.

Avoidance-roll: None.

Measurement per use: Approximately 6 handful of Siftweed.