

Mammal, Explanation of:

A Mammal is a creature that forms within the womb of another mammal. A creature, like an eagle, is not a Mammal; it is hatched. A Mammal will always come to full term, before being born into the world, within the female parent (like a human child).