Description:

Annihilation Strike?: Yes.

Description: This creature appears to be a sky-blue winged reptile.

Eye color: Diamond-white with vertical cat-like pupils of snow-white.

Eye shape: Large and slanted.

Scale color: Deep sky-blue.

Height: 11'-6"

Length: 34'-6"

Skin texture: Scaley.

Posture: Avian/Quadruped (like an animal with four feet that can fly).

Weight: 2,250 lbs.

Wing contour: Bat wing contour, thick and leathery.

Wingspan: 103'-6"

Dislikes: Fire. This creature hates and loathes the presence of fire.

Disposition: Even though this dragon has an evil disposition, it respects any creature that has the heart of courage. This dragon hoards treasure greedily, as do most dragons, and will protect it by destroying anything or anyone that it deems a threat to its security.

Often times, this dragon will be found sleeping upon the heaps of treasure it so highly covets. If encountered in its lair, there will be a 30% chance this dragon will be asleep upon its treasure.

Fears: Fire. This is not an actual fear, but more a profound knowledge that fire burns twice as hot as the blade bites deep.

Habitat: Arctics, Cliffs, Mountains (cliffs and mountains where it is permanently cold year round). This dragon will hunt in warmer climates, but this is quickly done.

Immunities: Cold, Fear (See: "Fear"), Pain, Poison (excluding Toxin Poison) and Shock.

Life-span: 12 ages (12,000 years).

Likes: This dragon is enthralled with Gems, especially Special Gems. It's love for gems will drive it to any means to get them. It will trade, or it may just take them (Discretion of the G.M.).

The Frost Dragon loves music, song and dance. To hear a mortal sing and play dance enralls it. If preformed well, this dragon will most always keep such luxuries within its lair, often times wishing performances and rewarding for such. So enthralled is this dragon with dance, music and song, a fire is most always allowed to keep its captive warm and secure. As performances please this dragon, it will provide sustenance, occasionally a companion, for its captive. A companion brought to a captive will be a random encounter, and will most always be very young, so as to ensure the safety and loyalty towards both dragon and captive.

It has been recorded that a mortal and this dragon can develop an inseparable companionship . . . if the mortal watches his or her actions and communications with the uttermost care.

Needs: This creature needs the comfort of permanent cold regions to survive. If not within a year round cold regions, this creature will lose 1 damage-point per 24 hours until it dies.

Note: A Frost Dragon egg is valued at 100,000 white-gold. A newly hatched Frost Dragon is valued at 50,000 white-gold.

Armor and Shield Crafting: Prerequisite trade-skill(s) to craft this item: Blacksmith and Leather Worker.

If crafted, one can create Frost Dragon Scale Armor or Shield which will retain 50% of its resistances (rounded up) listed in the "Special Defenses" section.

Crafted Dragon Armor will be considered as Krannik-Steel Scale Armor for stats and adjustments, excluding the special abilities that appear in the "Resistances" within the Special Defenses section. Beneath, and naturally attached to the scales of Dragon Armor, is the Dragon-Hide Leather, which is considered as, of course, Dragon-Hide Leather for stats and adjustments, excluding the special abilities that appear in the "Resistances" within the Special Defenses section.

For each level Frost Dragon Scale Armor or Shield is master crafted, its resistances will increase by +3, yet not to exceed the maximum resistances of this creature.

The frost damage-reduction for armor and shield crafted from this dragon's hide will be 50%. As with the other resistances, frost damage-reduction will increase by +3 each time the armor is master crafted (maximum frost damage-reduction = 100%).

See: "Special Defenses" to know the resistances which will benefit the wearer of Frost Dragon Scale Armor or Frost Dragon Scale Shield.

Special Abilities: Modification-points: The Frost Dragon will have a 20% chance of having modification-points as follows: $3\text{-D}20 + 9 + 2\text{-D}6 + 1$ per 2 levels advanced (exactly as a player character rolls for modification-points each level). These points can be used to learn any spell or ability, but all prerequisites must be met for building this creature encounter.

Night-Vision: As the Psychics spell.

Tracking: This creature can pick up and follow a track scent on a roll of 25+. A track can be followed for 1-D6 hours. After the 1-D6 hours has expired, a tracking check must, again, be rolled for to see if the dragon can keep the trail.

Special Defenses: Damage-Reduction: 10

Resistances: This creature has the following resistances:

Acid: 35%

Blunt: 28%

Electricity: 44%

Magic: 70%

Mental-attack: 70%

Needle attacks: 54%

Sharp weapon attacks: 30%

Spiritual-attack: 70%

Special Offenses: Berserker's Rage: When this creature is wounded it will fly into a Berserker's Rage, gaining a +30 to strike for the remainder of the fight.

Fear Presence: When this creature is encountered all creatures must successfully make an avoidance-roll vs. "Fear" (intelligence and wisdom added together ÷2) or the following will occur:

1-D6 movement reduction (not less than 1 movement per turn).

2-D10 Coordination reduction (not less than 5).

2-D10 Dexterity reduction (not less than 5).

20% ability failure chance.

20% spell failure chance.

Susceptibilities: Fire-based attacks upon this creature will cause x2 damage, and will heal at only ½ the normal rate of healing.

Weapon susceptibility: Rank-0 (or better) enchanted weapon to harm.
