

Oracle: Orb, Challenger's

Area of Effect: The space(s) the holder of the Challenger's Orb in occupying and 24 spaces (120') out all the way around the holder.

Avoidance-roll: None.

Charges: 1-D6

Command word(s): "Gith Mura" (unknown language).

Damage: None.

Duration: Until the holder of the Challenger's Orb, or foe, is defeated.

Effect time: Instant.

Explanation: When the "Command word(s)" are spoken, all within the "Area of Effect" will freeze, unable to do anything but watch as the one who wields the Challenger's Orb challenges one foe to duel. That foe will then be released until the fight is ended.

Again, those in the "Area of Effect" will not be able to do anything but watch (no exceptions).

Any outside the "Area of Effect" that try and interfere in any direct, or round-a-bout way will freeze in the same manner also (no exceptions).

Hand movement: The orb must be in hand at all times.

Healing: None.

History: It is known that this orb falls from "The Great Challenger", who's name is Carthian Spinesetter. He has not walked the land for ages. Some claim to have seen Carthian, but most doubt their words. Carthian Spinesetter is a Challenger, an entity that inhabits a strong set of plate armoring. It is rumored that this entity is the will of a great argonaught, who upon leaving mortality had such an insatiable will for battle, that he continued on as the Challenger. Most believe this to be mere speculation, but cannot otherwise account for this powerful orb.

Immunities: None.

Invoke time: 1 turn (5 seconds)

Maximum adjustment: Not applicable.

Notes: None.

Preparation: Merely hold up the Challenger's Orb and speak the "Command word(s)".

Range: See: "Area of effect".

Resting time: None.

Special: None.

Susceptibilities: None.

Value: 15,000,000 white-gold +100,000 white-gold per charge.
